(Hymn 1234)

- G D7
1. I thirsted in the barren land of Babylon
G
And nothing satisfying there I found;
D7
But to the blessed local church one day I came,
G - C - G
Where springs of living water do abound.
D7 G
Drinking at the springs of living water,
D7
Happy now am I,
G C G
My heart they satisfy;
D7 G
Drinking at the springs of living water,
C D7 G - C - G
O wonderful and bountiful supply!
2. How sweet the living water from the hills of God,
It's flowing in and flowing out of me;
O now I've found the place for which I long had sought,
Where there is life and life abundantly.
3. O brother, won't you gather in the local church?
A fountain here is flowing deep and wide.
The Shepherd now would bring you to the local church,
Where thirsty spirits can be satisfied.
